Sedona, AZ, USA - October 6, 2015 /PressCable/ -- Thai Spices Natural Restaurant was named winner of Market Surveys America "Best of the Best" in the Thai Restaurant category, beating out all other Thai restaurants in Sedona and the Village of Oak Creek, Arizona. This is the 15th consecutive year that Thai Spices has taken home the award. Market Surveys America presented the award to Pearl Pardee, owner of Thai Spices in person with a commemorative plaque.

Persons interested in learning more about the award or Thai Spices' location, hours, philosophy and full menu can visit the Thai Spices website at <http://www.thaispices.com>.

Thai Spices Natural Restaurant merges the principles of macrobiotic cooking with traditional Thai cuisine. Pardee says this means that each dish is "energetically balanced" to be both pleasing to the palate and healthy for the body at the same time. Unlike most other Asian restaurants, they do not use refined sugar or flour, MSG or genetically-modified ingredients in their dishes. They also offer vegetarian options for their dishes, many of which are also vegan.

Potential award recipients had to be located in Sedona or the Village of Oak Creek in order to be in contention for the "Best of the Best" Thai Restaurant, and were judged based on independent voting by community members as their favorite Thai restaurant and the "best of the best" in the area. Pearl Pardee, master chef and owner of Thai Spices Natural Restaurant was pleased about the company's performance, saying:

"We're honored to receive this award for the 15th year in a row and to know that the local community is consistently choosing us as their favorite Thai restaurant in the Greater Sedona area."

Thai Spices has been serving the Sedona area for 25 years and has a dedicated local following of health conscious diners from throughout the Verde Valley and tourists who return regularly to Sedona, Arizona from around the world.
