

I Love ChiChi Expands Range to Become Largest Supplier of ChiChi London Clothing in Poland

I Love ChiChi has now become Poland's largest provider of ChiChi brand clothing imported from London, with beautiful dresses and accessories from the high fashion boutique.

Stetin, Zachodnio Pomorskie -- January 28, 2016 (FPRC) -- ChiChi London aims to bring catwalk fashion direct to the high street with their beautiful ranges of Cocktail, Prom, Evening and Maxi Dresses, and has succeeded in doing so throughout the UK, where their products are best sellers both from the boutique itself and online through sites like ASOS. However, these items are still hard to get hold of internationally, meaning European fashionistas are left with a difficult task to secure the dresses. Fortunately, I Love ChiChi has been importing the beautiful dresses to Poland, and has now expanded its range to become the biggest provider of its kind.

The website includes a full range of midi, maxi and formalwear dresses (sukienki chi chi) made from the very best quality fabrics with stunning detailing, cut to flatter every shape. The dresses are amazing value, and the new range has arrived just in time for carnival season, with a new range of looks specifically tailored to this decadent, elegant time.

All items on the website are listed with high quality imagery, clear pricing, a wide variety of color and sizing options, and easy and secure payment options. This ensures that not only is the range the biggest, but the easiest and most enjoyable to shop.

A spokesperson for I Love ChiChi explained, "Poland is quickly becoming one of the trendiest countries in the world, and its metropolitan centers have a great hunger for this kind of fashion, which is being under delivered by the designers themselves, who have yet to realise the potential of this amazing market. That's good for us, because it allows us to import the products to Poland and help these enthusiastic fashion lovers find the perfect dress of their dreams. The new range is available to purchase now, and it won't be long until we expand again, so individuals should be sure to bookmark the page and check back regularly for new items."
