The Houston Junk Car Buyer has been in operation for forty-plus years. The primary focus of the business is to buy junk cars, which it has been doing since the firm was founded by the grandfather of the current owner. Houston TX - June 27, 2016 /MarketMedia/ -- Houston Junk Car Buyer is pleased to announce that they are on a mission to help area homeowners spruce up their properties by eliminating unsightly unwanted or non-running vehicles of all types. The firm will buy junk cars, truck, recreational vehicles and old school buses, running or not. There is no charge for the price quote and no obligation. The car buyer will pick up the vehicle, or it can be delivered to one of the four Houston locations.

According to a spokesperson for the company, "We buy junk cars program is the largest in the area. The operation is the biggest in South Texas. We have grown the program by treating each client with respect, dignity, and honor. Our customers are real live people that we honor and respect." This is what has built the company into the biggest in the area.

The firm honors its quotes. The quote that is provided is the one which applies when the driver arrives to pick up the vehicle. A check is issued to the seller immediately upon the unit for hauling away. If the car can be driven or towed, it affects the price which is provided for the sale of the unit. There is no cost for the transportation of the vehicle.

The purchase of the junk vehicle requires a title, but the information on the procedure for obtaining a duplicate title is available on the website. There is also a description of what to do when there is a lien on the vehicle. The buyer does everything to make the price of the junk car as high as possible and as easy as possible.

The information that is provided to the junk car buyer is carefully protected. The only information which is collected is that required to purchase the vehicle. It is retained only as long as the law requires. No information is sold or distributed to third parties. Like most of the other companies.
