Suchhi will be honored at the 4th Global Officials of Dignity Awards(G.O.D. Awards) on August 17-19, 2016 at the United Nations Headquarters, New York.

July 15, 2016 (FPRC) -- Bollywood Actor and Model Suchhi Kumar never imagined he would receive a humanitarian award someday. A natural giver, Suchhi loves giving back to the community quietly. "Last Christmas, Suchhi played a big role in the "Global Santa Project" of We Care for Humanity WCH where he was responsible for bringing happiness to at least 2000 children in India.

"Mr. Kumar is a hardworking person and he takes his craft seriously, yet he put charity in a special spot in his heart. That is why we, at the honoree committee are very excited to honor Mr. Kumar with Humanitarian Bollywood Actor of the Year!", exclaimed Princess Maria Amor, founder and president of We Care for Humanity and creator of the G.O.D. Awards. In addition she said, " He is a great example of performing artists who use their talents and skills for humanitarianism, we should have more artists like him in the Hollywood and Bollywood Industry".

Suchhi will be honored at the 4th Global Officials of Dignity Awards(G.O.D. Awards) on August 17-19, 2016 at the United Nations Headquarters, New York. Both flagship events are organized by We Care for Humanity and its philanthropic partners: SREI Foundation, J & B Medical Company, HWPL and China-US Business Association.

About Suchhi Kumar:

Suchhi Kumar, a talented and popular model and Indian actor, said "My life is my way, my way is my destiny and my destiny is my life." He follows an excellent motto, which is known as "my life, my way and my destiny." An energetic face with an engraved body, Suchhi kumar easily took over the stunning modelling field and this was the surprising turn of Bollywood" Mumbai.

First thing, one can know about Suchhi kumar, is God comes first in his life. He is one of the sincere human being, one could ever meet and know. He is from Varanasi, UP and started his career as an excellent model and winning the famous "Best Physique" award in North India. After that, he shifted to Delhi where he consolidated his modeling career as a brand ambassador of many prestigious brands, including Kumar-shirts, Levi's, Leo shoes, etc. He is an adoring as well as creative person, always using his mind in order to make any research and develop fresh concepts for his exclusive projects.

Suchhi comes from the family with excellent values which makes him who he is today. He has always enjoyed acting since he was a small child and he is fortunate that now he earn his living by doing what he love the most, known as Acting, Acting, Acting! He got an excellent opportunity to assist some of the highly experienced and brilliant directors of Bollywood industry, accordingly learned lots of useful things from them. Along with this, he also got a fantastic chance to travel all around the world where he truly learned about various cultures and met awesome personalities from the international film industry. He is fond of the martial arts and was blessed to obtain training from experienced and talented masters in Japan, which is being very useful today because he want to establish himself as an action oriented actor.

While speaking about his new challenge, it is implementing his own production company SILVER DOLLAR PRODUCTION which he is recently launched. His main aim is to enlarge his activities as well as to provide best services in everything which related to event and film production. His company also has a branch in Mauritius and Africa as he wants to deal on a global level. "My journey is lead by God, and he's putting people on my path, to guide my life and I always wish the best for everyone, and encourage them to stay prayerful", said by Suchhi Kumar. In addition, he always expresses his deepest gratitude to all his fans for their support, blessings and love.
