

Emotional Intelligence Certification and Training Available Online and Internationally

The EQ-i 2.0 is the worlds first scientifically validated model of emotional intelligence. Available in multiple languages, professionals around the globe in Human Resources, Organizational Development, Training, Learning, and Executive Coaches can now receive their certification via online training.

August 24, 2016 (FPRC) -- Leadership Call, LLC, a Veteran owned company, has announced their fall 2016 Emotional Intelligence (EI) EQ-i 2.0 Certification & Training schedule. EQ-i 2.0 is a powerful tool used by world class companies as a core instrument for developing high performance teams, groups, and leaders at all levels. It has been completed by millions worldwide and is the premier scientific measure of self-report social emotional intelligence. "Emotional Intelligence continues to be embraced by companies around the globe as a critical element in people development. Based on a high volume of inquiries about EI workshops and EQ-i Certification programs we have added additional training dates that will make the remainder of 2016 an exciting year for us, our current and future clients" said - Ed Hennessy, CEO and Founder of Leadership Call.

Leadership Call offers Emotional Intelligence expertise and services to clients worldwide in the following areas.

EQ-i 2.0 & EQ 360 Certification: A comprehensive program consisting of eLearning modules and a two day highly interactive workshop conducted online, in Dallas, or at the client's preferred location. This course will equip the participant with the expert level knowledge to use the EQ-i 2.0/EQ-360 within their organization, company, or practice.

Emotional Intelligence Training: Options include a half or full day emotional intelligence workshop or clients can request a customized EI program based on their specific needs. The workshop is for clients who want to harness the power of EI assessment and training as part of their professional development program. The program includes an EQ-i assessment, Workbook, EQ-i Development Plan, and EI Growth Graphs for development in a specific EI skill. Leadership Call will deliver the workshops on site at the clients preferred location. Additional services include EI based webinars, EQ 360 assessment, EI Assessment for Hiring, Speaking Engagements, and Executive Leader EI Development.

For more information on the services offered by Leadership Call, visit www.leadershipcall.com

About Leadership Call, LLC

Leadership Call, LLC works with individuals and organizations to improve human performance through harnessing the power of Emotional Intelligence (EI). Leadership Call is a leading provider of EQ-i 2.0 Certification training in North America and a Master Training Partner with Multi Health Systems in both the EQ-i 2.0 and Pearman Personality Integrator. Leadership Call's expertise is sought by emerging companies, global corporations, government & military organizations, consulting firms, academic institutions, and professionals in Human Resources, Organizational Development & Training, Psychology, Executive Coaches, and many others.

About Multi Health Systems

Established in 1983, MHS has been developing the very best in psychological assessments for over 30 years. With offices in North America and Europe, and partners around the world, they are a Canadian company serving the global community. Their products have demonstrated an unwavering commitment to innovation, quality, helping people, and improving human performance.

For more information visit www.mhs.com

Contact Information

For more information contact Ed Hennessy of Leadership Call, LLC (<http://www.leadershipcall.com>)
214-838-0098

Keywords

emotional intelligence

emotional intelligence training

emotional intelligence workshop

You can read this press release online here