May 26, 2017 (FPRC) -- Ehud Segev, the world-renowned mentalist, yesterday performed at the rooftop of the 433 Broadway building in New York City. This adds a string of performances that the mentalist has recorded in cities around the world this year. Previously, Mr. Segev traveled to Cologne, Germany, to entertain dental practitioners during the 2017 International Dental Show. Mr. Segev has also traveled to Ghana, Africa, New Delhi, India, and a number of other global cities for high profile events.

In the 433 Broadway rooftop performance, Mr. Segev unleashed some of his most famed feats, in an event that some guests compared to a scene from a 'Now You See Me' movie. Among many other things, Mr. Segev has been known to bend spoons and turn credit cards into paper airplanes, all with his mind. While most of his fans, and critics, have referred to his powers as magic, Ehud Segev has reiterated that all he does is tap into the innate powers of the human mind.

Ehud Segev was born in the Israeli city of Safed in 1979. While growing up in Upper Galilee, Mr. Segev spent a lot of his time reading books on mysticism, body language, mind reading and other cryptic subjects at the local library. By the time he was a teenager, Mr. Segev was already a national TV sensation. He at one time predicted the winner of a mayoral election by just studying pictures of the contestants. Mr. Segev has been featured on major TV stations and networks around the world. At one time, he appeared on NBC's hit show, 'Phenomenon'. There's no exhausting the mentalist's list of accomplishment. As a reward for his work entertaining U.S. service members in faraway basis, Mr. Segev was awarded the EB-1 classification by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security. This essentially gave him the rights to be a permanent U.S resident. The EB-1 classification is only given to individuals who've scaled the heights of their careers.

Ehud Segev is the author of at least two best-selling books. The first book, titled 'Secrets of the Voice', helps users understand how they can use body language to learn more about others, so they can influence them. The other book, '9 Steps to Mentalism', guides readers into how they can tap into mentalism using 9 simple steps. Both books are available on Amazon.com, as well as Ehud Segev's official website – Mentalizer.com.

Hannah Tiram, the brand manager at Mentalizer.com, said, "Ehud Segev recorded his latest performance at the rooftop of 433 Broadway in New York. The City of New York is one of the mentalist's most favorite destinations around the world. The event was a major thrill, with some of the attendants referring to Ehud as the 'king of mentalism'. In the coming weeks, Mr. Segev is near-full booked, with events organized in cities from New Delhi to London. Keep it fun with Mentalizer.com."
