

The Official One Stop Portal for New Condo Launch Singapore - Condolaunchsg

CondolaunchSG (www.condolaunchsg.com) is officially launched and strives to be the number 1 property portal which focus on new property launches in Singapore and internationally.

Singapore, Singapore (FPRC) 20 June 2017 -- CondolaunchSG (<http://www.condolaunchsg.com>) is an online property portal featuring new launches and T.O.P projects both in Singapore & Internationally. New Condo launches has been very sort after in Asia, due to the lack of supply in the last 5 years. With the increase in the number of new launches, purchasers are spot for choices and scramble to get information from everywhere.

With the launch of this new portal, purchasers can have a one stop online "shopping" experience to do comparison on the different new launches. This would give the purchasers a one-stop experience without needing to put in too much effort in gathering information.

In this website itself, it will detail every single information like the top reasons for owning a unit in a particular development, site plans, floor plans, property perspectives and many more. All these information are updates first hand, before the public will have access to.

The "Property News" section is also a consolidation of international news on property updates. This gives buyers the latest updates on any latest news which one would be interested, can it be a purchase of a unit for own stay or investment.

Potential purchasers can contact the Direct Developer Sales Team in CondolaunchSG to get real time life updates and a property tour based on their requirements.

Some of the feedbacks from some of the happy buyers:

Mr Tan: "This One Stop Portal, www.condolaunchsg.com is so informative and I have them bookmarked so that whenever any of my friends or relatives are looking for a property, ill always recommend them"

Mr. Sunder: "The kind of service and the hospitality that the team has provided to us for our purchase of our new house is just outstanding! I will surely recommend them to my friends and relatives"
