

The Cognitive Institute of Dallas, 501c3 Opens a Growth Economy Series and Global Security and Protections to Address Malicious Content and online Harm for Businesses

October 15, 2017 (FPRC) -- North Texas Companies Are Credited with Efforts to Address Community Awareness Regarding Fake News, Security, and How to Respond to Negative New. With U.S. Departments and government agency's not having a plan; Non-profits like the Cognitive Institute of Dallas, INC. 501c3 are helping small to medium businesses protect their virtual environment and business reputation.

Charles Edda & Charles Bouley, Inc. and the Cognitive Institute are teaming up 4th quarter 2017 and throughout fiscal time 2018 to see Tx businesses about online event and their reputation. Within Country large Cyber Security Understanding, Head Dr. Ra'chael Fisher will show data security tips and ideas to smaller businesses in North Tx. The Cognitive Institute of Dallas 's been with us approximately 2 decades throughout the town. When using move toward global expansion and economy there's a fresh effort to take care of within the communication. The culmination of information. It's time to address new dangers as the necessity for business to use in global settings.

The Cognitive Institute of Dallas spent time working between Fort Really worth and Dallas to take care of needs of metropolis that lend and support sustainability and development. There specialty includes community work and designing online programs offering hosted webinars with content for ladies, businesses and SBA clientele. By using Fort Worth BAC, their collaborative partner Charles Edda and Charles Bouley, INC as security company will get started educating organizations about their virtual community and world alliances. Without security, the internet could be an creative menace that threatens our data, individuals capacity to own a home, car as well as perhaps even disrepute their credit history.

Negative and fake news is malicious and it could hurt businesses and small owners without recourse", mentions a Board member of the Cognitive Institute of Dallas. Our collaborative efforts are designed to bring awareness with a much needed security components and privacy. This gives CEOs and business owners tangible ways to ensure their security. Its about education and empowerment.

Booking at Eventbrite Reservation will hold signup for a few location workshops and international webinars to take care of the fake information and information issue. Utilizing their reporting in 2016, 23% say they may have allocated a made-up media story - either knowingly or not. Dr. Fisher mirrors the sentiments of the Pew Research Midsection stating, People in America and companies likewise are mentioning concerns about deceptive news and the effect on both personal, business and associate life along with innocent individuals (learning a lot more...)

Contact Information

For more information contact Dr. Rachael Robertson of the Cognitive Institute of Dallas, INC. 501c3 (<http://cognitiveinstituteofdallas.org>)
8004105948

Keywords

cyber security

negative and fake news

privacy

You can read this press release online here