(February 15, 2018) Toronto, ONT -- As one of the 5 largest cities in North America, Toronto has seen it fair share of challenges with waste management over the years. This has lead to several start-ups in the private sector in an effort to meet the increasing demand. While there are several companies growing at a rapid pace, one can argue that Dump-Squad, is one of the best servicing Toronto and the GTA. They offer everything from Mini Bin Rentals, Dumpster Rentals to Full Service Junk Removal for individuals looking to dispose off their waste.

As Toronto continues to hit new heights in their expansion, Waste Management becomes a critical service. According to Rob Bond, spokesperson for Dump-Squad in Toronto, the demand for their services have never been higher. 'Since we started offering our Clients different pricing options (Flat Rate and Variable Pricing), we have seen a significant spike in market for disposal bins. Most of our clientele comes from referrals, whether it be homeowner to homeowner or contractor to contractor. I'd say the biggest reason for our quick success has been customer satisfaction. We always recommend a package that would be cheaper for clients' He also went on to say that customer service is one of the most overlooked aspects of this business. 'We have several clients that often need extra time for one reason or another. If we are not too busy, we often let the customer have it an extra day and that really makes a positive impression on them. In fact, we have received a couple of referrals immediately a few times when we worked with out clients than charge them overage fees'

While Disposal Bins Rentals in Toronto are fairly affordable, there are tricks that several companies use to squeeze more out of each customer. Dump-Squad's Dumpster Rentals in Toronto are known for their fair prices and quick service. As it stands today, they have a 5 star rating on all platforms and don't show any signs of slowing down. At the time of this article being written, Mr. Bond has mentioned that they are looking to investors in order to grow this company even further. People are extremely happy with the service and there certainly is a positive vibe sounding this company and its personnel.
