Nashville, TN - September 25, 2019 (FPRC) -- Country cutie and award winning independent country music singer/songwriter, Jessie Lynn®, received the 2019 Modern Country Female Artist of the Year at the 5th Annual Josie Music Award Show held at the Celebrity Theatre at Dollywood in Pigeon Forge, TN on Saturday, September 21, 2019.

The Josie Music Award Show is the largest independent multi-genre music award show in the U.S. and continues to grow each year. Artists from around the world attend this event each year. This was the second year for this award show to be held at the Celebrity Theatre in Dollywood. Dollywood is now the official home for The Josie Music Award Show.

Alabama's Singing Cowgirl, Jessie Lynn®, is a multiple award winning independent modern and traditional country music singer/songwriter and proud CMA member! She exhibits her classy cowgirl and infectious sassy personality on and off the stage. She has "Opened" for The Oak Ridge Boys, Montgomery Gentry, Jessica Meuse, Shane Owens, Kirk Jay & Corey Smith.

Jessie Lynn® recently released two singles that have charted on the Music Row chart. Her single, "I'm Diggin It" released in November of 2018, charted at #52. Her current release which she co-wrote with Marty Morgan and Scott Steele titled, "What Happens in the Country, Stays in the Country" is climbing the Music Row chart and is currently under Billboard indicator stations' review for air play.

Jessie Lynn® continues to refine her own musical style by working with her producer, her vocal coach and various musicians, singers, and songwriters! She looks forward to seeing all of you at upcoming concert and radio tour events!
